Upon the <ul> <li>✓ Motion of the Government attorney pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1), or</li> <li>✓ Motion of the Government or Court's own motion pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2),</li> </ul>
the Court held a detention hearing and found that detention is warranted. This order sets forth the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law, as required by 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i), in addition to any other findings made at the hearing.
Part II - Findings of Fact and Law as to Presumptions under § 3142(e)
□ A. Rebuttable Presumption Arises Under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2) (previous violator): There is a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community because the following conditions have been met:  □ (1) the defendant is charged with one of the following crimes described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1): □ (a) a crime of violence, a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1591, or an offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 2332b(g)(5)(B) for which a maximum term of imprisonment of 10 years or more is prescribed; or □ (b) an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death; or □ (c) an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of 10 years or more is prescribed in the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. §§ 801-904), the Controlled Substances Import and Export Act (21 U.S.C. §§ 951-971), or Chapter 705 of Title 46, U.S.C. (46 U.S.C. §§ 70501-70508); or □ (d) any felony if such person has been convicted of two or more offenses described in subparagraphs
(a) through (c) of this paragraph, or two or more State or local offenses that would have been offenses described in subparagraphs (a) through (c) of this paragraph if a circumstance giving rise to Federal jurisdiction had existed, or a combination of such offenses; or
(e) any felony that is not otherwise a crime of violence but involves:
(i) a minor victim; (ii) the possession of a firearm or destructive device (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 921); (iii) any other dangerous weapon; or (iv) a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250; and
(2) the defendant has previously been convicted of a Federal offense that is described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1), or of a State or local offense that would have been such an offense if a circumstance giving rise to Federal jurisdiction had existed; and
(3) the offense described in paragraph (2) above for which the defendant has been convicted was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a Federal, State, or local offense; and
(4) a period of not more than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction, or the release of the defendant from imprisonment, for the offense described in paragraph (2) above, whichever is later.

☑B. Rebuttable Presumption Arises Under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(3) (narcotics, j	irearm, other offenses). There is a

OTHER REASONS OR FURTHER EXPLANATION:

Background information unknown or unverified

Prior violations of probation, parole, or supervised release

The court granted Defendant's motion to reopen the detention hearing and held a hearing. The defendant is charged by indictment with possession with the intent to distribute a controlled substance. There is a presumption that no conditions will assure the defendant's appearance or community safety. The defendant presented sufficient evidence to rebut both presumptions. The court nevertheless finds by a preponderance of the evidence that there are no conditions that will assure the defendant's appearance, and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure community safety.

During the summer of 2023, agents and a confidential informant (CI) traveled to Colombia to buy cocaine. The transaction was arranged by co-Defendant Sandoval-Rojas. After the cocaine was received and lab tested, further discussions were had about the purchase of 300 to 600 kilograms of cocaine, In connection with those discussions, Sandoval-Rojas told the CI that her "boss" wanted to meet the CI.

At the meeting between the CI and Defendant Lopez-Porras, Lopez-Porras confirmed that he was the "boss" and that he had a worker in Columbia who was tasked with packaging the cocaine. Lopez-Porras and the CI discussed a future purchase of 300 kilograms of cocaine. Lopez-Porras suggested that the CI rent an AirBNB for the next transaction.

Lopez-Porras has no status to live or work in this country. He is a citizen of Colombia and has been in the United States for less than five years. He has criminal ties to Colombia. He is at least a supervisor in this criminal venture. He is facing a very long sentence, given the amount of drugs that were the object of the conspiracy. While he has a good family, his incentive to flee the court's jurisdiction far outweighs his incentive to remain. The evidence against him is strong and he now faces prison and then deportation. He has no reason to stay here. Moreover, his high-level involvement in this case and his access to very large amounts of drugs indicates that there are no conditions that will prevent him from continuing his criminal conduct if released.

Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. 5/8/2024
